

KAUNAS PHOTO 2007

Mysteries – Secrets – Illusions

Attention! Events described on this page have already taken place

KAUNAS PHOTO 07 also honored celebrities of the international photographic scene. Paweł Zak (Poland), presented his famous series “My Close Acquaintance”. Alnis Stakle (Latvia) exhibited his new work – “Living Space Daugavpils” at “F gallery” and Toshiki Ozawa (Japan) disclosed his long-term project about Lithuania at “Fujifilm gallery”.

Aside from the exhibitions there are workshops held by visiting guests. The traditional highlight events – Nights of Photography – reminded viewers that photography was alive not only in daylight, but also in trendy city pubs, illuminated by music and the colours of the night. There will also be portfolio reviews and an exhibition of the students and graduates from the visiting schools of photography – Ostkreuzschule (Berlin, Germany) and Studio Marangoni (Florence, Italy).

“SBA Ideas For Home”, 2007

Another initiative for this event is the “SBA Ideas For Home”, where over 300 photos will be exhibited. Every year KAUNAS PHOTO has been introducing a new means of dialogue between photography and the audience. This time the festival places photographic pictures as main accents of interior. Art photographs will become not only as an essential interior elements, but objects to purchase for collectors and those willing to top their home interiors by adding a point of originality.

“Secrets, Mysteries and Illusions”, Kaunas Picture Gallery, National M. K. Čiurlionis Museum, 2007

The decisive KAUNAS PHOTO 07 exhibition “Secrets, Mysteries and Illusions” will open on 18 October in Kaunas Picture Gallery, National M. K. Čiurlionis Museum. The works of over 70 artists will give viewers the chance to discover the mysterious, colorful, decorative and social world of the 21st century.
